

The following information was obtained from the records of the Department of Health, Education and Welfare, Office of the Assistant Secretary for Health Policy, Research and Statistics, Division of Health Care Resources, Bureau of Health Manpower Resources, Washington, D.C.: The number of physicians per population in each country was calculated by dividing the total number of physicians by the total population. The number of physicians per population was calculated for each country by dividing the total number of physicians by the total population. The number of physicians per population was calculated for each country by dividing the total number of physicians by the total population.

Fayez G. Assaf

2872

[illegible]

INTERFERENCE SEARCHED
Class	Subclass	Date	Examiner
unavailable		8/5/03	4

[illegible]